

In SITE Out 2007

26 October - 18 November

Ecotone Installation & Dismantle with artist Christine McMillan

Tuesday 23 October - Installation
Sunday 18 November - Dismantle

Orange Botanic Gardens

Kearneys Drive or Hill Street, Orange NSW

Are you interested in working with artist Christine McMillan on an installation and dismantle of Ecotone for the 'In SITE Out 2007' exhibition at the Orange Botanic Gardens?

If you are interested there are positions for helping with the physical installation of the gauze and the documentation: photography, video, sound and drawing etc. You may like to cycle through these different media and ways of working. When the work is exhibited your contribution will be acknowledged. Ecotone is part of a larger project which began with the installation Symmetrical Planting at the New England Regional Art Museum. This project is being tracked on the blog: www.symmetricalplanting.blogspot.com

TIME of Set up: Tuesday 23 October, 2007 at 9am
Time of Dismantle: Sunday 18 November 2007 at 1pm
PLACE: Orange Botanic Gardens
BRING: your preferred tools for documentation

RSVP: 19 October, 2007

Gauze collection

I am collecting old, unused and unwanted cotton gauze bandages and swabs. This is for a work called Gathering. If you have any gauze sitting in the bottom of your first aid kit that you would like to donate, your donation will be documented on the Symmetrical Planting Blog. I am also publishing the stories related to the gauze.
